The Sea
familiar yet mysterious serenely peaceful yet brutally violent ebbs boundlessly deep yet transparently shallow.
It is a haven protecting the smallest and largest of living creatures.
Or it is a thief that maliciously destroys man and his dreams of conquest.
The rising tide, the falling tide reveal clues to the past and promises of the future.
The sea invites man to sail beyond the horizon, to dream great dreams
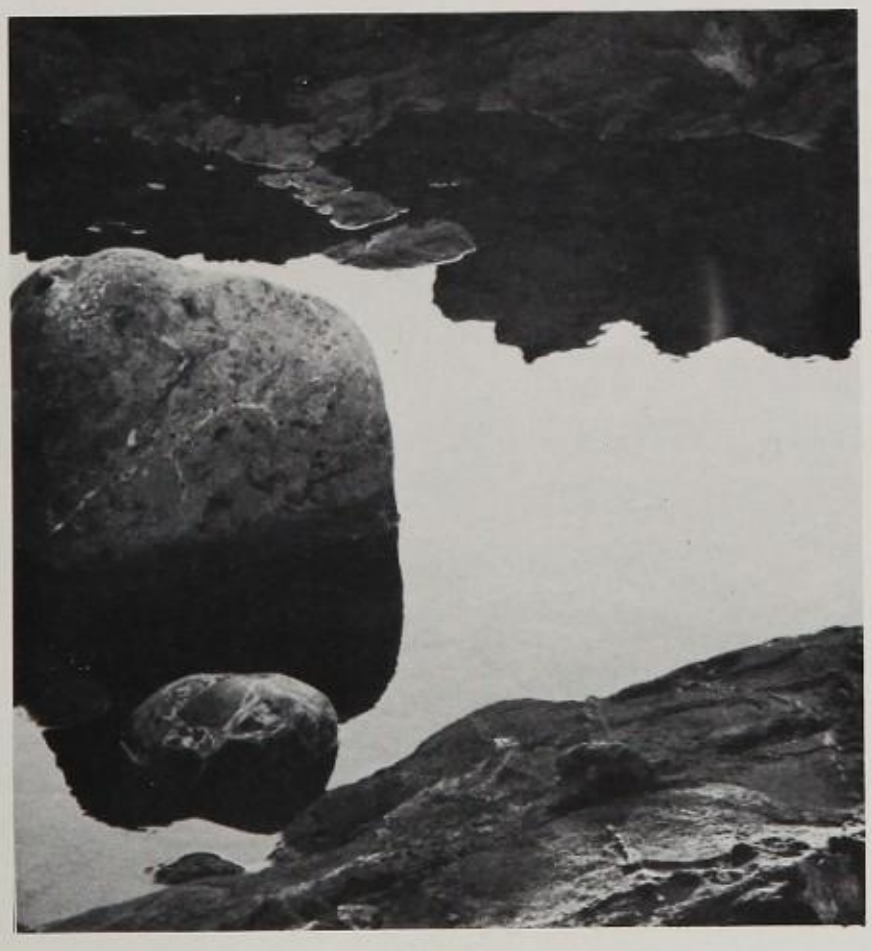
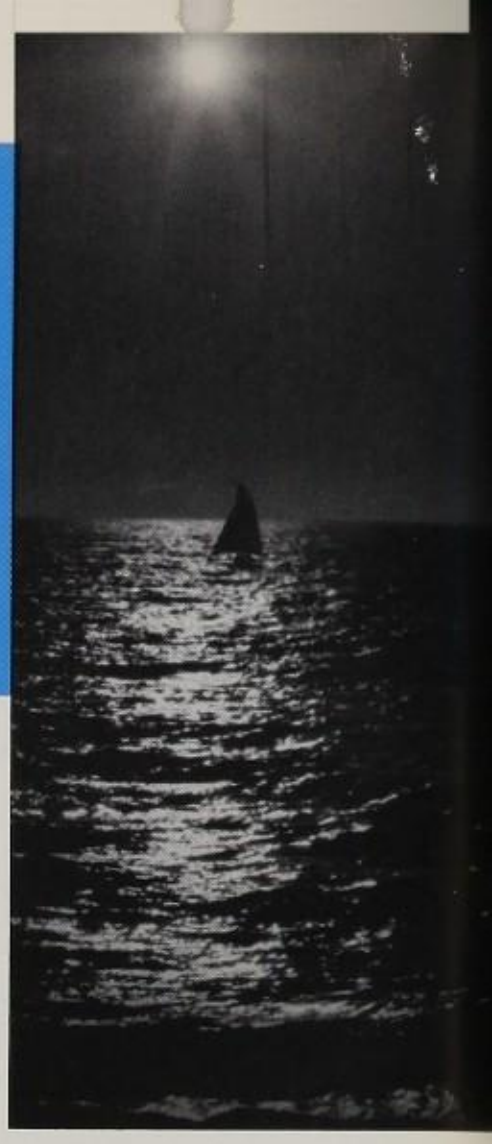
and to do great deeds.

The sea, frenzied by Autumn's winds, agrily frothing in a Winter squall, or calmly drifting beneath a salty Spring breeze, mirrors the changing of seasons and sets the theme reflected in the Olympiad 1966.

The lazy days of Summer, like the lull before a storm, ended and suddenly the school year began.



Midst Autumn studies we cheered for our football team, greeted freshmen at the Howdy Hop, and danced at the traditional Homecoming celebration.



Winter's wind and rain only increased the enthusiasm with which we cheered our basketball team.

Spring brought serenity to the sea and winning seasons in track, baseball and tennis.

Then it was time for reports, term papers, finals and at last the Junior-Senior Prom.

Now the Seniors pull up anchor and set their sails to the wind, leaving the harbor which has sheltered them for four years.
The underclassmen remain,
tightly moored,
waiting for the day when they too will embark for uncertain waters.

In the first non-league game of the season, the power of the 1964 Bay League Champions, Palos Verdes slipped past South 7-6. P.V. scored their lone touchdown toward the end of the first quarter on a five-yard run by C.I.F. star halfback Bill Tapp, with Tapp kicking the extra point, that proved to be the deciding factor of the game. The Spartans scored in the fourth quarter after a disputed Sea King fumble, by the Sea King center which gave South the ball on their own 13. Christensen carried for four yards with Arrieta going over from 13 yards out for the goal for South.

El Segundo was looking for vengeance when they played South in the second non-league game of the year, because of last year's loss to South 19-18. Spartan end Jim Jennings grabbed a 58-yard pass to give South its first down on the one-yard line where Arrieta crashed over for the score. Arrieta's extra point attempt stopped short. The deciding play of the game came late in the fourth quarter on a blocked Spartan punt on the 10-yard line. The Eagles scored on a run play, and a pass to an open end provided the extra point to defeat South 7-6.

The first game of the season for South was played against powerful Santa Monica. The Vikings had won their first two-pre-season games, and they later went on to capture the Bay League Championship crown. South set out to spoil the Vikings record, but the superior SaMoHi offense and defense held the Spartans scoreless, forcing South to bow down to a blistering 41-0 defeat.

In the second game of league action saw the Sea Hawks and the Spartans battle out to a scoreless first quarter. Second, third and fourth quarters proved to be a different story as the Sea Hawks could do no wrong, as they racked up twenty-seven points to roll over the Spartans. At times the Spartans marched down-field, only to have to give up the ball to the tight Redondo defense.

Inglewood, known for their strong defense, held South scoreless, in the Spartan-Sentenial battle. The Sparts lone attempt to score came in second quarter with a 38 yard pass to end Augie Felando, which set the ball on the 12 yard line. Spartan quarterback Scott Christensen passed to Felando for the touchdown only to have it nullified by a penalty.

South arrived at the Mustang already plagued with a big disadvantage, both first string guards, Jim Kauble and Bob Nicholas were out with injuries from the Inglewood battle and would be unable to see gridder action. Spartans Feel Cougars' Claws

The great civil war was relived when the Spartans of South High battled the North High Saxons in a head-on clash on the Spartan field. It was Homecoming night for South and the gridders were out for their first big win of the year against the next to last team in the league. But just as in the Civil War of 1861, the Northerners triumphed over the rebel Spartans. South put up a hard fight but was able to score only one T.D. to North's three. South's score came in the fourth quarter then Christensen crashed over the line for the score.

The Spartans closed out their Bay League gridder season against Hawthorne. The Spartans made a vain try to win, but saw their hopes shattered by the Cougars fine passing. In the first quarter South made a 60 yard drive that was halted on the Cougar 25. Then in the fourth period the Spartans put together a drive that finally produced a touchdown. Steve Jones crashed over from two yards out for the score.

The last score of the season, South loses ninth straight 26-6 against Arcadia.

South finally ended its '65 gridiron season losing to Arcadia 26-6 there. South posed little threat to the mighty Apache offensive and defensive tactics throughout the game, while Arcadia's defense held the Spartans to the barest gains. South threatened to score in the second quarter on a 17-yard run by Dale Hewitt, and a 15-yard pass to Felando from Snapper Douglas to put South on their own 10. Arcadia's defense held South to a three yard gain to end South's drive on the Spartan seven yard line. South's lone touchdown came with less than a minute to go with Hewitt crashing over on a three yard sprint to finally put the Spartans on the score board.

Harriers Post Great Season

South High this year continued to show the Spartans superiority in cross country as in the past. South's first competition this year was at the Long Beach State Invitational with the Spartans placing second, only one point behind Colten. The Spartans went on to win all their pre-season meets, and all their league meets except the meet with Redondo, in which South lost, 27-28. This loss forced the Spartans to settle for second place in Bay League standings. However in Bay League finals, the Spartans place first. This sent them into the C.I.F. prelims where they placed first, moving them into the C.I.F. finals. South went on to place second in the triple A division. Led by Lenny Jay and Jeff Marsee, the Spartan cross country men are rated as 14th in the nation to cap South High's most successful season ever.

All Spartans will agree that the Jolly Green Giants provided plenty of excitement for all cager fans, during their '65-'66 cage season. The Spartans closed out their Bay League season with a respectable 7-5 win-loss record, taking defeats from Mira Costa and North twice, and from Redondo 52-50, in the last game of the year. Early this season, the Spartans pulled off one of the biggest upsets of the year, rolling past then undefeated Redondo, 60-54, in one of the first rounds top thrillers. The game, considered a "do or die" one for the Spartans, was just what the Spartans needed to complete another successful cager season. With the addition of last year's Sky League Champs, North the tough Bay League was made even tougher. One of the thrillers of the second round was the battle between South and the MiCoHi Mustangs with South losing 48-44.

South High's Grapplers closed out another successful Bay League season, winning eleven out of their twelve matches. The matmen also rated high in tournaments, placing first in the Torrance and Marina Invitationals, and second in the El Camino and Bay League Tournaments behind stubborn first place Mira Costa.

The Torrance Invitational Tournament saw Tim Pinkney, Matthew Harris, Jeff Gindroz, Jeff Arrietta, Jim Kauble, Scott Christensen and Terry Tamble place first in their respective weight divisions. Next in line was the El Camino Tournament where Matthew Harris and Jim Kauble were champions. After beating Redondo 34 to 9, South's wrestlers went to the Marina Tournament. Here their championship was lead by Jeff Arrietta, Jim Kauble, and Scott Christensen who were first in their divisions. In the lats tournament, the Bay League Tournament, first place honors were won by Terry Tamble, Jim-Kauble, and Scott Christensen.

The Mustang's triumph over South in league competition kept the Spartans from placing first in Bay League standings. However when the C.I.F. Sectionals came, Terry Tamble and Dave Finn placed firsts with a total of six South High wrestlers qualifying for the finals. At the C.I.F. Finals South placed seventh as a team, with Matthew Harris and Scott Christensen both placing third, and Terry Tamble taking fourth with Jeff Arrietta and Jim Kauble qualifying as finalists.

Competition between six separate plays was the essence of the Thespian-sponsored One Act Play Festival. After four weeks of hard work and preparation, three plays were chosen to be presented to the Student Body. These plays had to compete even further for the biggest prize of all—the chance to enter competition at Long Beach State College. This years winner was a comedy-in-verse, "The Ladies of the Mop" featuring Linda Mann, Louann Nanini, Debbie Scott, and Belinda Baty. The play was directed by Joyce Neu. The two runners-up were "The Lesson" directed by Nora Goldsmith and "Two Crooks and a Lady" directed by Kim Turner.

Junior Administration Day

Work in the Activities office proves to be full of important "little things."

A library involves many activities from cross-filing to checking out books.

A speaker explains the purpose of Junior Citizens' Day.

John Balow—City Finance Director.

Junior Citizen's Day

Each year the Student Body officers of South High gain a greater insight into the functions of city government through their participation in Junior Citizen's Day. The officers assumed city posts within the city of Torrance corresponding to their student body positions.

The day's activities started with a general introductory meeting held in City Council chambers, followed by individual group meetings. The students then toured city facilities and had a chance to see their city government in action. Attendance at the City Council meeting concluded the day's activities.

Concentration is important to any city official.

"Love Is Walking Hand In Hand"

Charlie Brown and Lucy, walking hand in hand, set the mood for the annual Sweethearts Ball. This colorful event, was sponsored by the Orders of Athena and Apollo. Amid colorful decorations, the popular characters from Charles Schultz's cartoon strip shared the fun with the dancing couples.

For the first time a catered dinner was held at the dance, and couples could dine or dance as they chose. The highlight of the evening came when Linda Levanas and Craig Evanco were crowned the Sweethearts of the Ball.

The Varsity Baseballers opened their Bay League season against top rated Mira Costa where they were edged to a 4 to 3 defeat. However this defeat did not dampen their hopes as in their next game they came back and defeated Mira Costa 9 to 3. In their next two games they suffered losses to Redondo. North was next in line on the baseball schedule. In the first game North won 3 to 1. However, the next game with North saw a 2 to 2 tie after the 7 innings of regulation play. In the next inning, North squeezed in one run to beat the hard fighting Spartans 3 to 2. Winning ways were again seen by the South High baseballers in their next encounter with Inglewood. Ace Spartan hurler Kenneth Pfau pitched a no-hitter to greatly contribute to the 8 to 2 win. This win sparked on the Spartan nine to win their next game with Inglewood. Due to our early deadline we are unable to include anymore of the Spartans future games. However, South High has 3 of the top ten batters in the league and with many games ahead we are sure they will place well in the final Bay League Standings.

Its been nothing but win, win, win, for the high-flying gymnastics team, now in its second year at South. At the time this article went to press the Green and White stood at a mighty 5-1, win-loss record. Recent Spartan victories were: Ganesha 63-57, Corona del Mar 74-46, and North 89½-35½. During recent Tournament action the gymnasts captured the El Camino Tourney, placing 28 points ahead of second place North. At the Inglewood Tourney, South placed a close second to Westminster 31-20. First-man Varsity Allen Reilly grabbed first place honors, in the free exercise and parallel bars at the Camino Tourney. To date Reilly leads the Spartans with 106 points, with Rex Rhodes and Dean Sanderson helping out with 44 and 40 points respectively.

The 1966 Varsity Tennis Team has racked up an impressive 13 and 0 record so far this season. Many of these wins were perfect 7 to 0 victories. This mighty team is lead by first man Steve Terre (12-1), Scott Rathbun (12-2), Bob Chadil (9-2), Dave Ptak (10-3) and Max Woods (13-1). The outstanding doubles teams include Jeff Carlton and Larry Yunt who have accumulated a record of 3 wins and 1 loss. They also placed 1st's in the El Camino and El Monte Tournaments and are scheduled to go into C.I.F. play. The doubles teams are also lead by Jim Fiet (12-0) and Garl Mull (13-0). Due to our early deadline we will be unable to complete the tennis season. However we are sure they will continue their winning ways and reach C.I.F. play to represent South High in an impressive and winning manner.

Torrance Falls To Spartans

After some tight losses to some of the toughest schools in the Bay League, the Spartan tracksters have rallied back to become one of the better teams in the league. The Speedy Green and White chalked up a victory over Torrance at the start of the season, tromping the Tartars 38-25. During the Torrance meet, South swept the two-mile, pole vault, shot put, and the high and low hurdles. George Watson, Paul Moore and George Halliwell started off the meet right by finishing in a triple dead heat in the two-mile race. South has suffered defeats at the hands of the Sentinels of Inglewood 77-36, and the Santa Monica Vikings 67-46. Probable Bay League Champs, Inglewood showed their strength by outscoring South 63-5 in the 100, 200, low and high hurdles, shotput, high jump, long jump, and relay. Little went right for Scully's speedsters after Watson and Halliwell took 1-2 in the two-mile. Lenny Jay grabbed first place in the mile in a personal best of 4:26.6, and his flying finish in the 440 just failed to nip Larry Radcliff's 53.9 run, Jay finished out in 54 flat.

Second Semester A.S.B. President, Steve Kuchenbecker.

Student Council is an organization which enables its elected members to learn and put into practice fundamentals of leadership. This year's council proved exceptional in its ability to form an able and effective student governing body. It was also outstanding as an active sponsor of numerous activities.

This year, Council members traveled to neighboring schools in order to exchange ideas with other councils. These ideas were later presented by the Student Council to the Associated Student Body at South High. In this way, the organization proved an effective channel of communication between students of various schools. The Council also sponsored assemblies featuring student elections and much enjoyed entertainment.

Foreign Exchange

Erika Stotz, our foreign exchange student from Chile fascinated many students with her ability to yodel. In her general comments about South, Erika said she liked the great teachers, the spirit at the games, and the formal dances. Her future plans are undecided, but she intends to finish her education in Chile and someday hopes to return to the United States to visit.

Yuko Shiganami, our Japanese student, captivated South with her quiet charm and sparkling eyes. Yuko liked the modern style of the school, the teachers, and the weather. In looking at South, Yuko said she tried to see it not as a Japanese exchange student, but as an American student living in an American home.

Both girls said that they had enjoyed their stay in our country and they will never forget their good friends and new experiences.

Girl's State

The purpose of Girls' State is to provide a program, for junior girls of the high school level

The most practical way to learn about a democratic form of government is to become involved in one. As a Girls' State citizen, Barbara Bingham worked as a party member in her own "city." With rallies and full force campaigns the 499 girls in Girls' State elected city, county, and state officials and took over the state for one week.

Boy's State

There were 856 boys from all parts of California at American Legion's Boys' State in Sacramento. Like Girls' State, Boys' State is learning through doing. The many facets to city, county, and state government were explored through participation.

"I feel that the experience I gained at Boys' State has been and will continue to be helpful to me in any circumstance involving leadership," remarked Steve.

Girls' League

Girls' League was one of the largest, most active clubs on campus this year. To plan and co-ordinate the League's various activities, officers were elected and committees formed.

The Committees — Art and Decoration, Public Relations, and Service — were open to any girl who had the desire to be an active member of Girls' League. Some of the outstanding events of the year included the Winter Formal, Cotton Ball, Installations, and two fashion shows.

Each month, one girl was spotlighted for her outstanding achievement in Girls' League, and was presented with the "Girl of the Month" award.

National Forensic League

The South High Chapter of the National Forensic League enjoyed a very active year for its outstanding student speakers and debaters. Through this organization, students at South received numerous awards and recognition for outstanding performance within student speech and debate competitions.

The League made many trips to various schools which included U.C.L.A., U.S.C., University of Santa Barbara, and San Fernando Valley State.

However, the biggest event for N.F.L. was the award of the double ruby to Lee Pearce. This was the second time in the history of South High School that a student had won the nation's highest speech award.

Girls' Athletic Association swung out in high style again this year, promoting interest in athletics and good sportsmanship, not to mention friendship among the members. The G.A.A. at South High sponsored several playdays in which not only our school, but several other schools participated in various sports including basketball, track, volleyball, and softball. The members initiated a new Pen Pal program with other schools thereby furthering their interests in athletics. At the year's close, a scholarship was awarded to a deserving senior who had been active in G.A.A. for 3 years and had performed outstanding services for the club.

Folklorico

Folklorico is the first new club to have such an impact on the campus of South High. Its membership included a variety of banjo players, guitar strummers, harmonica puffers, and folk singers who entertained the club and introduced new songs.

The clubs purpose was to give those interested in the field of folk music a chance to share their styles and to learn a little bit of its history.

Folklorico officers include Robert Atha, Publicity Chairman; Barbara Fleming, President; Olivia Aguinaga, Secretary; and Nancy Marstall, Vice-President.

Radio Club officers include Ed Canrady, President and Robert Parker, Secretary Treasurer.

Radio

Students interested in amateur radio and who liked to fiddle with transmitters, joined the Radio Club. Blue Ridge, in the San Bernardino Mountains, was visited by the club's members and a one kilowatt transmitter was put into operation for a club project. They also had a popcorn sale in order to raise money.

Chess club officers include Judy Albright, secretary-treasurer; John Gerhardt, President.

Chess

The Chess Club was organized for the student who enjoys the challenge of the intriguing game called Chess and who would like to improve his playing skill. Under the leadership of Mr. Conway, the members met and matched their wits against each other in interclub tournaments and weekly challenges.

Jazz

Playing, listening, and enjoying jazz were the main activities of the Jazz Club. The members learned to appreciate the many aspects of jazz; but their interest did not stop in the classroom. They visited various jazz performances and sponsored a booth in the school carnival to raise money for a stereo and tapes.

Jazz Club officers include Ken Kuegeman, President; Cecelia Hawley, Secretary-Librarian; Kathy Hawks, Vice-president; Dave Stubbs, Treasurer.

Attendance was tripled at Boys' League meetings.

This year's goal for the fantastic 1965-66 Boys' League was to promote service to the school through sponsoring and participating in worthwhile activities. These ranged from Intramural sports during lunch to Whacky Olympics which included such races as the 440 yd. tricycle relay, the 220 yd. wheel rolling race, and the 50 yd. wagon race. The Boys' League Council went all out this year to make this the top organization on campus.

Future Nurses

There is nobility in helping mankind and there is nobility in nursing, but it isn't all glamour and fun as South High's Future Nurses' Club learned this year through guest speakers and visits to the Orthopedic Hospital, El Camino, and U.C L.A. Future Nurses' dedicated itself to recruitment of those interested in a nursing career and offered a scholarship for such a pursuit.

Future Nurses' officers include Luci Sinclair, President; Lorraine Fox, Historian; Linda Priest, Secretary; Diane Scarlett, Vice-President-Treasurer.

F.B.L.A.

Wall Street beware—the Future Business Leaders of America are on their way. With a wide variety of activities, including the usual popcorn sale and carnival booth, this club worked fulfilling their purpose: to develop well-rounded business leaders and citizens. Attending business conferences and sponsoring a welfare project completed the years plans.

F.B.L.A. officers include Cathy Perry, Treasurer; Diana Howe, Secretary; Joan Chiappetta, Vice-President; Arlene Reiley, President.

Flying

Perhaps the most unusual organization on campus, Flying Club provides members with an opportunity to explore and gain an appreciation of aviation's many aspects. This year, Flying Club thoroughly toured Los Angeles Airport, from planes to weather bureau, in order to fulfill their program.

Flying Club officers include Mike Malone, Secretary-Treasurer; Mike Islander, Vice-President; Mike Dumm, President.

F.T.A.

Chalkdust and erasers are the trademarks of any teacher. The Future Teachers of America learned this and many other valuable facts about the teaching profession. The club's activities included having speakers from the faculty, a field trip to U.S.C., and sponsoring a popcorn sale to support the annual scholarship.

F.T.A. officers include Bobby Rea, Secretary; Debbie Scott, Treasurer; Ken Sullivan, Historian; Renee Enslen, Girls' League Representative; Jackie Enslen, President; Pam Coy, Parliamentarian.

Language

German Club officers include Dave Kofahl, Treasurer; Jacque Bromm, Secretary; Lynne Bruiger, Historian; Dianna Curtis, President; Gary Jung, Vice-President.

German

Der Deutsch Verein, better known as the German Club, promoted interest in talking and singing German through the encouragement of a social spirit among German students.

The activities included a trip to La Tosca Movie Theatre where they watched German films. They went on an ice skating field trip. Also, while visiting the Hofbraus in Los Angeles, they ate, sang, and danced in an authentic German atmosphere.

French

The French Club worked toward a better understanding of the French culture by studying the language. With this in mind, the club sponsored various activities, such as a banquet with French cuisine and a French song fest.

At the meetings, games were played, but with an important new rule: French Only! At the end of the year, the club took an active part in the International Language Banquet, providing colorful native costumes and imaginative scenery.

French Club officers include Elaine Bastejian, Treasurer; Kathy Hawks, Secretary; Helene Neu, President.

Clubs

Spanish

"Hola, Isabel. Como estas?" had a familiar ring to all South High Spanish students, but those who wished to go beyond the mere mechanics of learning decided to join Los Descubridores. The romance and adventure of a faraway land were captured by field trips to famous Olvera Street, Padua Hills Theatre, and a Spanish speaking movie. Guest speakers from Argentina and Chile brought the ties of the Americas closer together.

Spanish Club officers include Nick Gregory, Treasurer; Caroline Watts, Secretary; Andre Gregory, Vice-President; John Lozz, President.

Latin Club officers include Nancy Harding, Program Chairman; Liz Coker, Historian; Leslie Libben, Publicity Chairman; Sue Coker; Robin Roy, President; Debbie Ohlman, Secretary.

Latin

The purpose of Latin Club this year was to provide insight into the influence of the Latin language on our society and to stimulate further study of it. The year held in store such exciting events as the Junior Classical League State Convention in March and the International Language Banquet in May. All of these were designed to give the student an opportunity to have fun while learning more about Roman culture.

History

The Society of Herodotus, better known as the History Club, was busy this year delving into dusty documents from the Ancient World. A timeless quality was soon found in the writings, and from them the club members gained a greater understanding of the heritage of mankind.

History Club officers include John Batty, Treasurer; Kathy Ball, Secretary; Pam Coy, President; Mike Eggers, Vice-President.

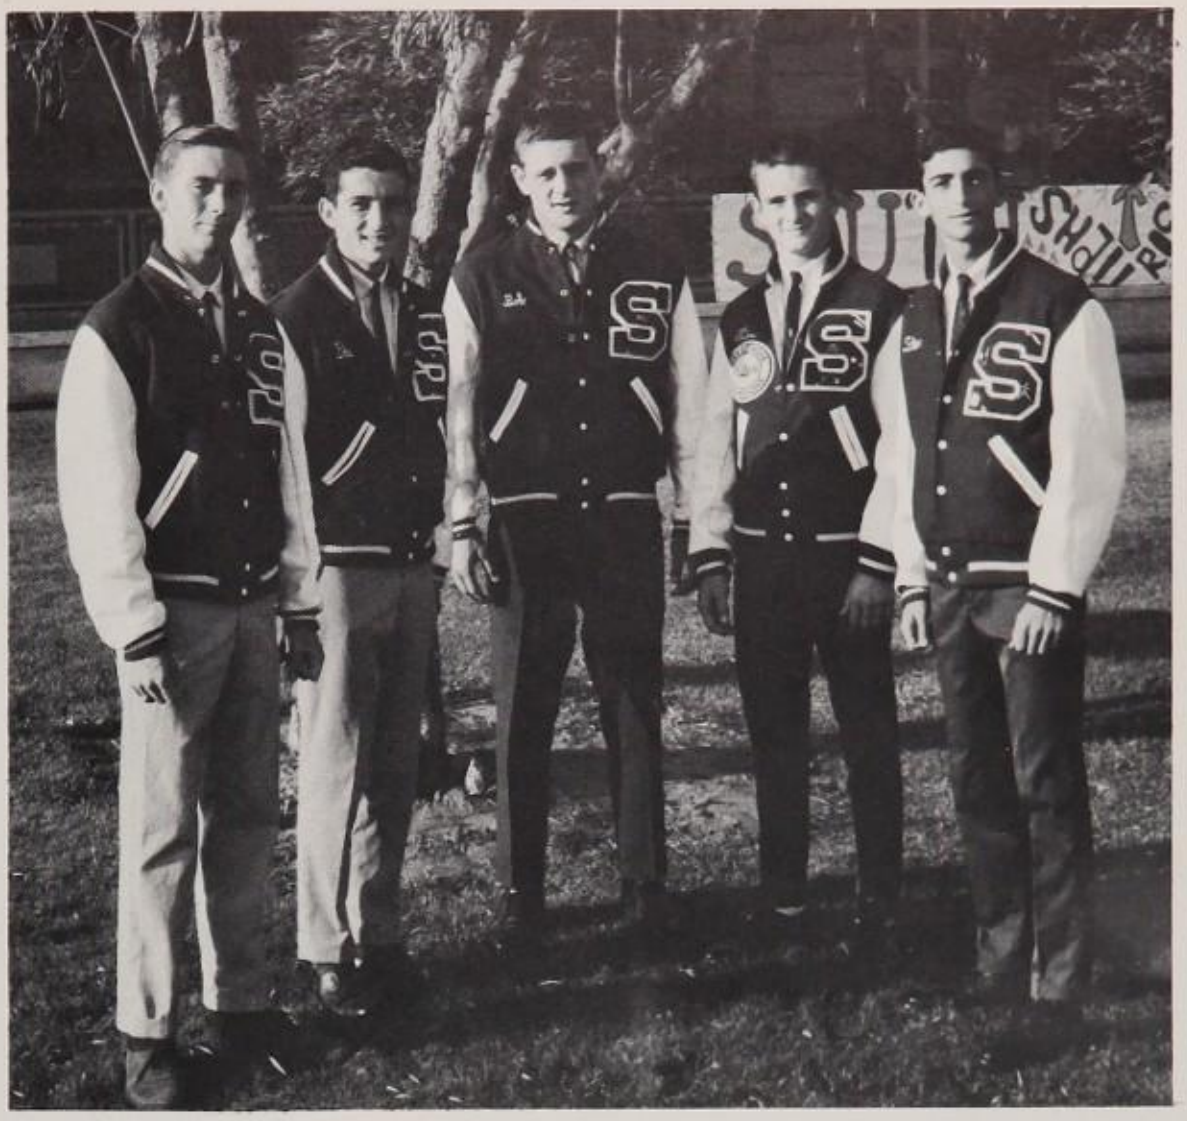
Math

Fun and proficiency was the motto of this year's Math Club. A broader understanding of the various types of math was learned in an interesting way by playing math games and puzzles. Working together as a group, the club members prepared themselves to take the Math Achievement Test and to participate in math competitions.

Math Club officers include John Gerhardt, Vice-President; Tim Chang, Secretary-Treasurer; Mark Abramson, President.

Lettermen's Club

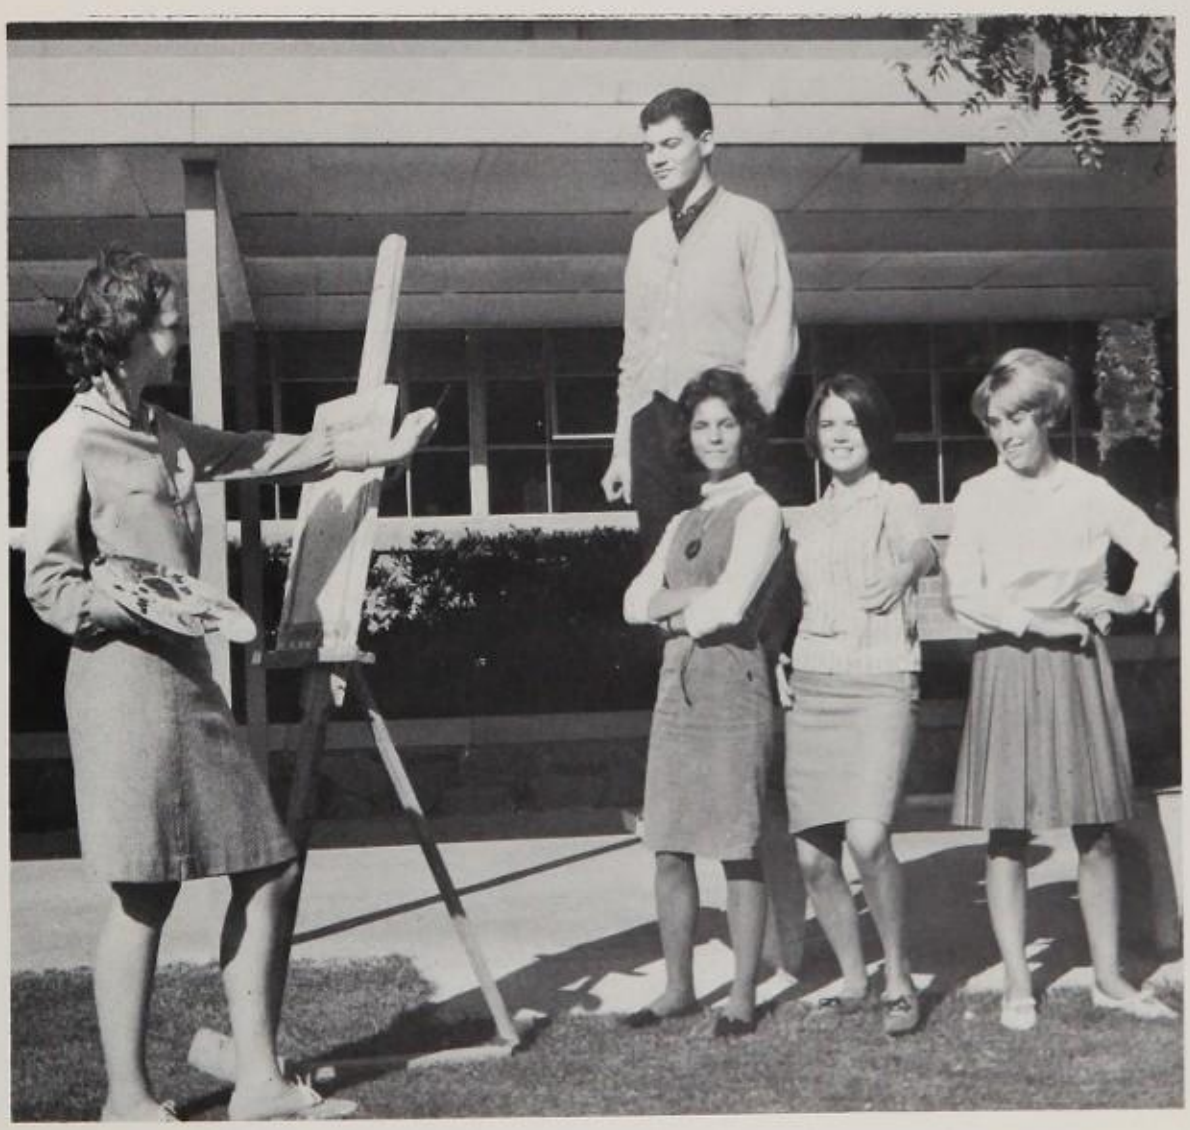
Service was the theme of this year's Lettermen's Club, supplemented by the standard goals of unifying the various sports and giving recognition to South's outstanding athletes. To help raise funds for their club, the lettermen sponsored a popcorn sale, a school dance, and a booth at the now traditional school carnival. As could be expected, the lettermen took first place in the Boys' League Wacky Olympics tricycle race.



Lettermen's Club officers include Lenny Jay, Boys' League Representative; Paul Kaplan, Vice-President; Bob Clark, Sergeant-at-Arms; Tim Pinkney, President; and Steve Kaplan, Secretary.

Art Club

From rooter ribbons to play posters, the Art Club zoomed through another year with a bevy of activities. Competition 5 offered an opportunity to all students interested in art to display their own work and compare it with the work of other students, while a scholarship for art achievement was also available.



Art Club officers include Janet Fitting, President; Curt Miller, Vice-President; Charleye Millman, Secretary; Marcia Vore, Treasurer; Sharon Felkel, I.C.C.

It's five o'clock, Wednesday afternoon—Deadline Day! Amid the scattered debris of headline charts, articles, ink and rubber cement—stand five lonely staff writers attempting to make heads or tails of the seemingly hopeless situation. There's too much front page copy and not enough editorial. No place for the Car-of-the-Month? How can you write up a sports event a week before it happens? But finally, everything is sent to the publishers and the paper comes out—perfect and on time!

The celestial sea, roaring, pounding, and crashing upon the shore inspired us, the 1966 Olympiad Staff to capture it's excitement and beauty between the pages of this year's annual. Within a sea of churning activity the staff has finally accomplished their goal to combine the sea with the many activities at South High and produce an annual that will furnish many everlasting memories.

Due to the fourth and final deadline the staff was unable to include the late spring activities. However we are sure that the excitement of the Junior-Senior Prom, the conclusion of the spring sports, and the thrill of the senior activities will form many fond memories that will act as a supplement to our annual.

When this school year comes to a close, with its many memorable times, activities, and accomplishments we have had will always be as familiar to us as the sea has always been, through the help of this 1966 Olympiad.

Library and Audio Visual

The library is a popular facility at South High. With over 31,000 books, it more than meets the high standards of the American Library Association. Many students take advantage of its resources. New improvements this year include a copy machine and a charging machine.

The audio-visual department, a vital part of the library, is responsible for films and other audio-visual materials.

The curriculum department orders text books and schedules films and conferences. Guided by Mr. Marashlian, it also handles curriculum development. This year new classes added to our curriculum include ancient history, electronics III and IV, home ec research, Spanish V, and chemistry II.

Many students take advantage of library facilities during their lunch period.

Pupil Personnel

Pupil Personnel, under the supervision of Assistant Principal, Mr. Benson, is the administrative office which is the most closely related to the students. Through this office, students iron out the problems that face them at South High.

The counselors' major job consists of helping students decide what classes will best suit them for future careers. The counseling office also handles college-bound seniors, scholarships, academically talented students, and about 50 eighth-grade students who excel in math, science, or a foreign language.

The attendance office, under the direction of Mr. Jones, keeps up-to-date records of daily attendance, clearing all students to return to class after being absent. The attendance office is also in charge of issuing bus passes, off-campus passes, and parking permits.

Many students who plan to go to work directly after graduation are taking part in the four/four, work experience program. Mr. Davis works closely with students and employers so that the students may receive credits toward graduation while on the job.

Activities

Activities are an essential part of the spirit and atmosphere of South High. Led by Mr. Morgan, Assistant Principal in charge of Activities and Administration, our activities provide the spice of education and recreation intermingled. Mr. Morgan and our Activities Advisor, Mr. Muse, work with Student Council to plan such events as pep rallies, assemblies, and dances. The activities calendar, on which all school events are scheduled, is an important part of Mr. Morgan's many duties. He also directs the athletic and driver training programs, and is responsible for the training of all classified personnel, including the cafeteria workers and the custodians.

A greater knowledge and appreciation of the language we speak was the result of the combined efforts of English teachers and students this year at South.

The teachers directed students in all phases of English. Sometimes the emphasis was placed on grammar, sometimes on great literature, but almost always on composition.

With this increased knowledge of English, students discovered new worlds of enjoyment and self-expression.

SENIOR ENGLISH

Creative Writing students read and compare one another's work.

Senior English and Creative Writing

Senior English prepares students for college by stressing composition, vocabulary, and other important English skills. Classroom work includes essay writing, individual reading, and critical analysis of novels, plays, and magazines. Students work to prepare themselves for College Entrance Exams under the guidance of teachers. English literature is studied and students compose a term paper on Shakespeare.

Creative writing gives students an opportunity to express themselves in literary form. Originality and clarity are stressed and students are encouraged to develop an awareness of the world around them. Second semester the students prepare "Analecta," the South High literary magazine.

Reading

Reading helps the student become more aware of the 'idea' represented by words rather than the actual words themselves. Vocabulary and comprehension are increased as well as reading speed and efficiency. Magazines are analyzed and books are evaluated. Study habits improve as students learn to recognize different styles of writing, understand new doctrines, and retain the basic concepts found in reading material.

"Inverted pyramid, font, and 30-dash," soon become part of a new language for South High journalism students, a language that demands accuracy, clarity, and conciseness. The ability to arrange facts and statistics into an interesting and sometimes exciting article requires knowledge and enthusiasm, both of which are goals of journalism classes.

Under the supervision of Mr. Rische, first year students delve into the history of journalism, newspaper techniques and standards, world affairs, and uses of propaganda. Problems concerned with informing and appealing to the reading public also become the subject for discussion. "The Sword and Shield," South High's own newspaper, is both written and edited by the members of the advanced journalism classes.

Future journalists listen intently to Mr. Rische on the history of journalism.

Through class participation, speech students gain experience in many phases of verbal expression. For the fact conscious speaker there is debate and extemporaneous. Original oratory and impromptu speeches give the students a chance to express their own ideas and opinions. In addition, dramatic, oratorical and humorous interpretations help the speech student gain poise and self-confidence. Interest in speech is further promoted by N.F.L., the speech club which sponsors speech contests and debate tournaments.

Work, talent, imagination, and fun are all aspects of the exciting drama classes. Everyday students discover that a successful dramatic performance depends on competence in all aspects of theater craft. Skills in interpretive makeup and costume design are developed through formal study and by participation in dramatic events. Creative set construction and stage lighting are also important subjects of study. Through the performance of significant drama, students develop insight into the human condition and they share with others the special excitement and magic of dramatic art.

Knowledge of a foreign language is becoming increasingly important as the other parts of the world are brought closer through advances in communications and transportation. Advances also have been made in methods for teaching foreign languages. The Audio Lingual Materials and the modern language lab are important factors to the success of the South High foreign language program. During the first two years of language study, students try to master the necessary vocabulary, as well as gain knowledge of noun declention, verb conjugation, sentence structure and the idiom. Class time is also used to study the history and customs of the foreign country and its people. This aids the student in his reading and understanding of that country's literature during the third and fourth years of language study.

Social Science

Social Science is a vital of South High's school program. Although it has always been a required four year course, basic changes have taken place.

This year the board of education approved the purchase of new text books for the World Geography classes, as well as new films and color transparencies to supplement them. Also approved was a new course outline to be used in conjunction with the new geography books. Efforts are constantly made to keep the course content as current and relevant as possible.

Enrichment courses in Social Science are available to all students, enabling them to broaden their social perspective. The time is past when only required courses are offered in the Social Sciences. To satisfy a demand, a course in Ancient History is offered this year. It was developed and is being taught by Mr. Schwendemann.

Business Education

Through business education, students prepare to take their places in the competitive world of business. Of utmost value to the secretarial student are the shorthand and typing classes, which give the fundamental skills necessary for an introduction into the business field. Practical experience is obtained in office practice, general business, bookkeeping, and sales and merchandising. These business skills are further applied in business law and consumer economics. For students who plan on entering the business world after graduation, the experiences gained in class prove helpful in finding and in holding a good job. Those who go on to college discover that these classes help them in taking lecture notes, writing term papers, and maintaining part-time jobs.

South High's very extensive program in Science is designed to accommodate the interests of students in many different scientific areas.

By taking General Science, students get an introduction to all of the major divisions of scientific study. This enables them to discover the field which is most interesting and best suited to them. Earth Science introduces students to many different areas of inquiry. Study of the earth involves such subjects as Geology, Meteorology, and Astronomy.

Specialization in Oceanography, Biology, and Physiology emphasizes the study of living organisms. Since students at South High live so close to the sea, Oceanography is a very popular course. If a student finds this study of life of great interest to him, he can take advanced classes of Biology or Physiology.

South High also has a dynamic program in Chemistry and Physics which enables students to keep in pace with the information explosion.

Sociology

In an age when the science of earth and space has so stepped up the study of man's relation to his environment, it is becoming more and more important for man to stop and discover just what his relationship to his fellow man is.

Herein lies the purpose behind sociology—the study of the history, development, organization, and problems of people living together as social groups.

South High students study sociology in four phases: (1) the development of the individual; (2) the development of groups; (3) the individual role in groups; and (4) social problems.

Sociology helps students from different nations to get along together.

Miss Hill explains the importance of groups in our society.

Art

Through the ages, man has expressed his imagination and feelings through the many different medias of Art. His quest for self identity may be fine expression with a brush, chisel, or pen. An emotion may assume visual form in shades of crimson and chartreuse and any other imaginable hues. His boundaries are as vast as his mind, as limitless and wide as the ocean.

At South High, students are provided with opportunity to develop their talents to the fullest. Art students in both fundamental and advanced art classes are constantly encouraged to explore new ways of self expression.

Driver Training

Safe driving is imperative in today's society, and to impress this fact on the minds of Californian students, the State requires that one semester of Driver's Education be completed before graduation. To develop the proper mental attitude toward driving, South High has established a program which stresses the ideals of safety. Not only are students taught how to drive, but they also learn about the parts of the automobile, its function, and operation. Knowledge of a car and its potential encourages sensible driving and alertness.

An instrumental part of the driver training program is the Drivo-Trainer Cars, where students "drive" to a movie which simulates actual traffic conditions. It is here that the student can learn the fundamentals of driving without endangering others on the road. As skill is gained, the student moves up to the dual-control cars, where he can experience actual traffic conditions.

To complete the course, students are instructed in important first aid techniques for use in emergencies. Understanding of accident prevention and of civil defense tactics which this course impart should remain with the student for the rest of his life.

National Merit Award Winners

Each year thousands of hopeful students take the National Merit Qualifying Tests. These tests are part of a nationwide cooperation which gives assistance to students of exceptional ability. By a highly selective screening process, semi-finalists from each state are chosen, then finalists, and finally the National Merit Scholars. This year South is represented by two finalists and thirteen letters of commendation winners.

California Scholarship Federation

This year the California Scholarship Federation has continued toward its goal to become a more active part of South High. The C.S.F. members serve the school as tutors after school and as ballot-counters at election time. They also participate in many activities including a field trip to U.C.L.A.

The High School Bowl team helps bring recognition to C.S.F. Our victorious team consists of Mark Abramson, John Gerhardt, Tom Crispen and Tom Leavitt. Each Bowl tournament presents a new challenge to our unbeaten team.

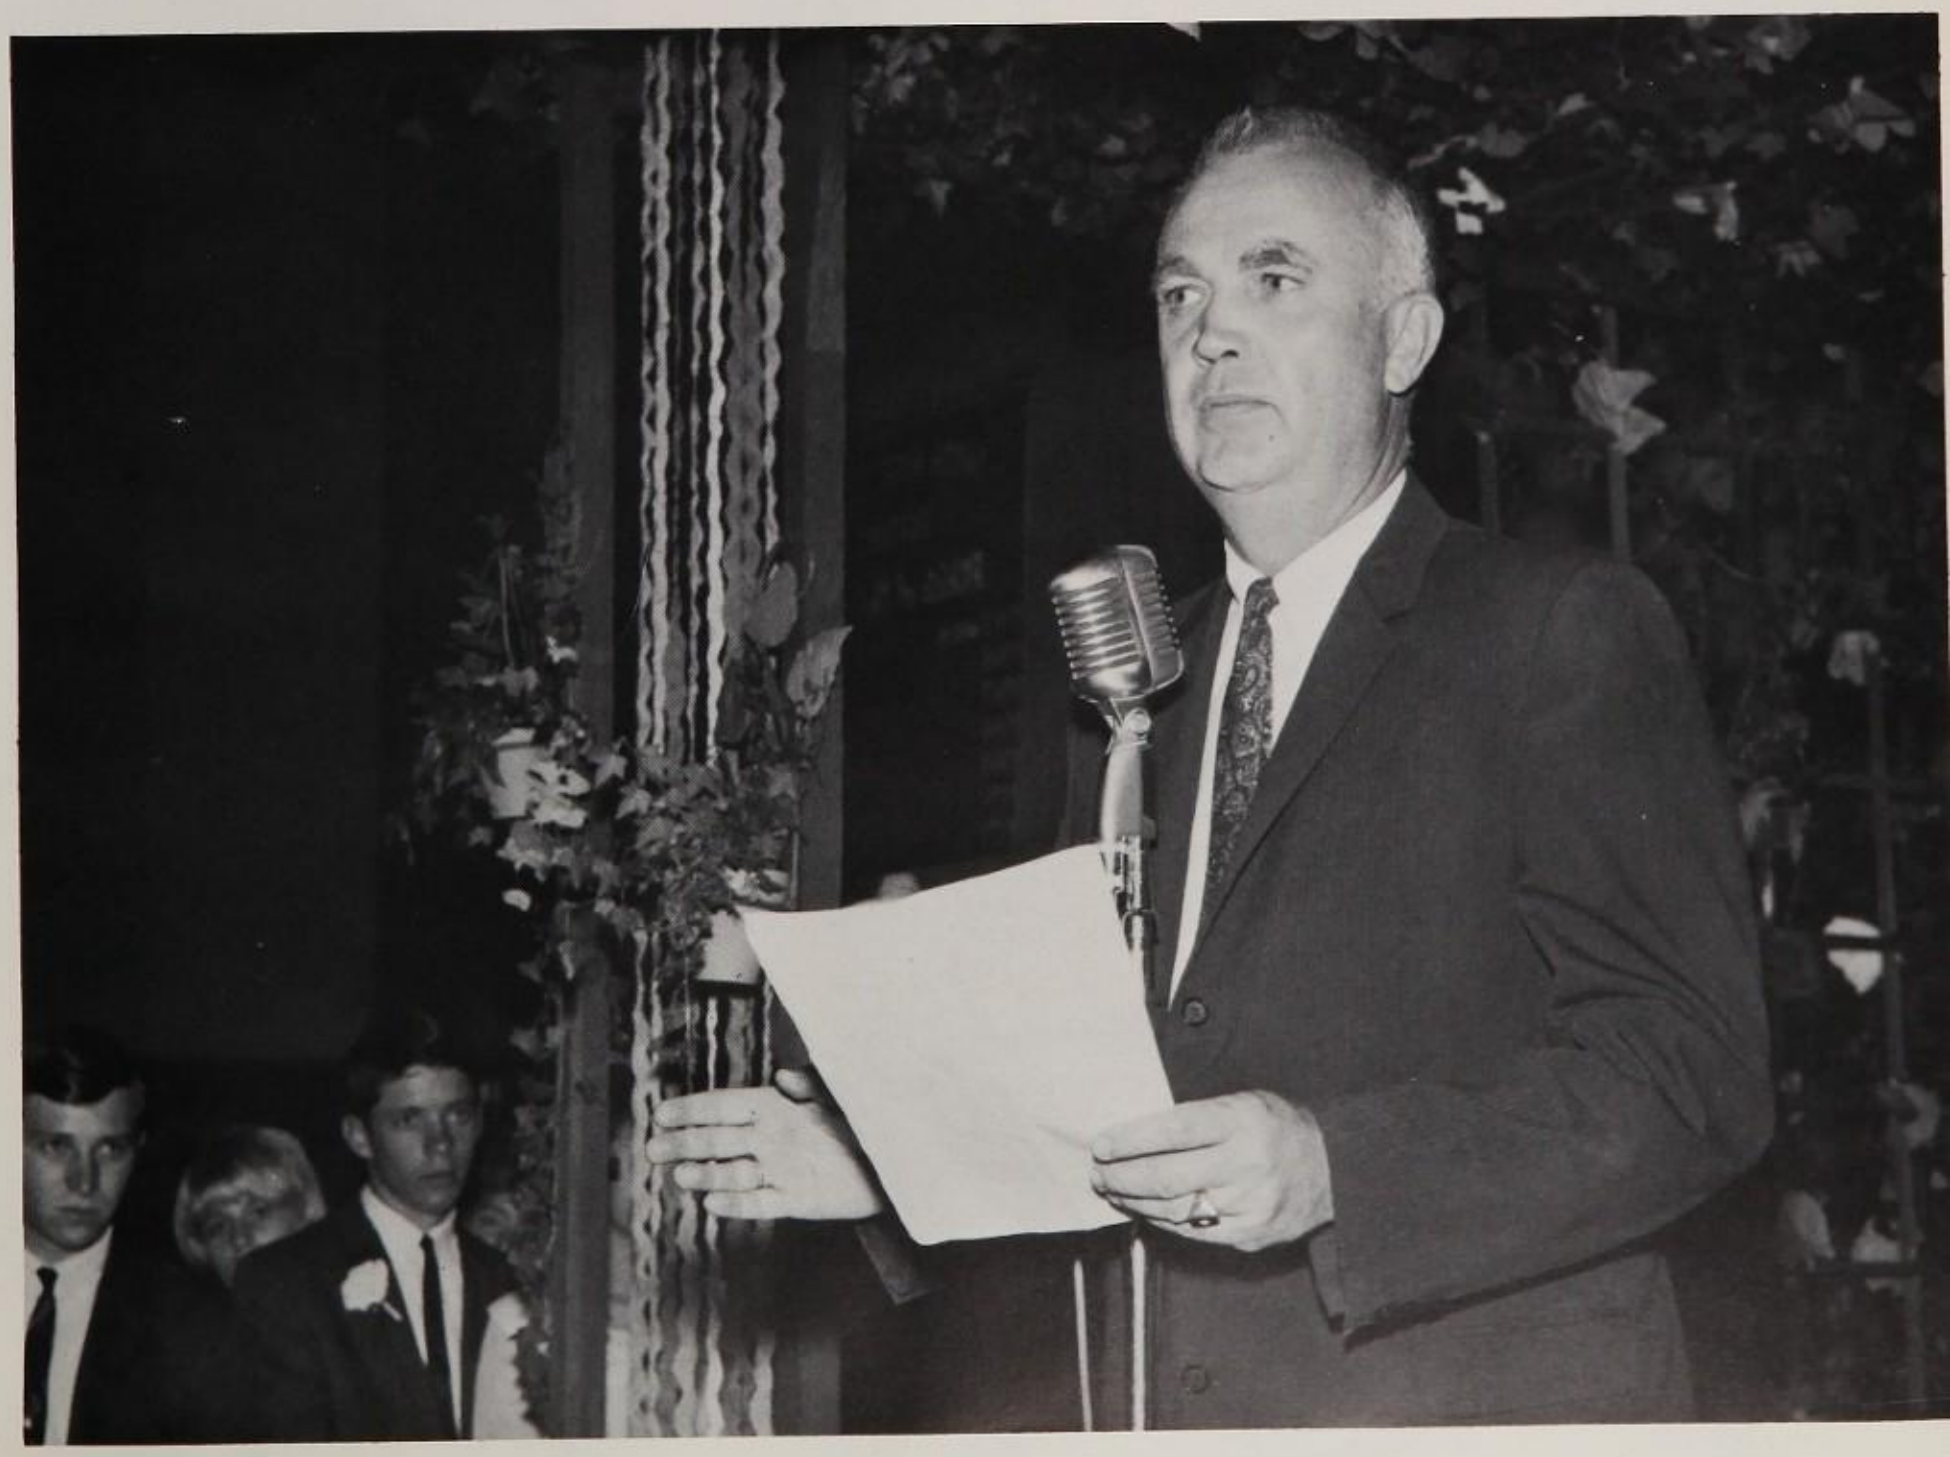
Day Yorks

Throughout the school year our principal, Dr. Lucas, acts as both administrator and friend to the faculty and students of South High. His inspiring and constructive counsel continues to encourage us to ever greater achievement.

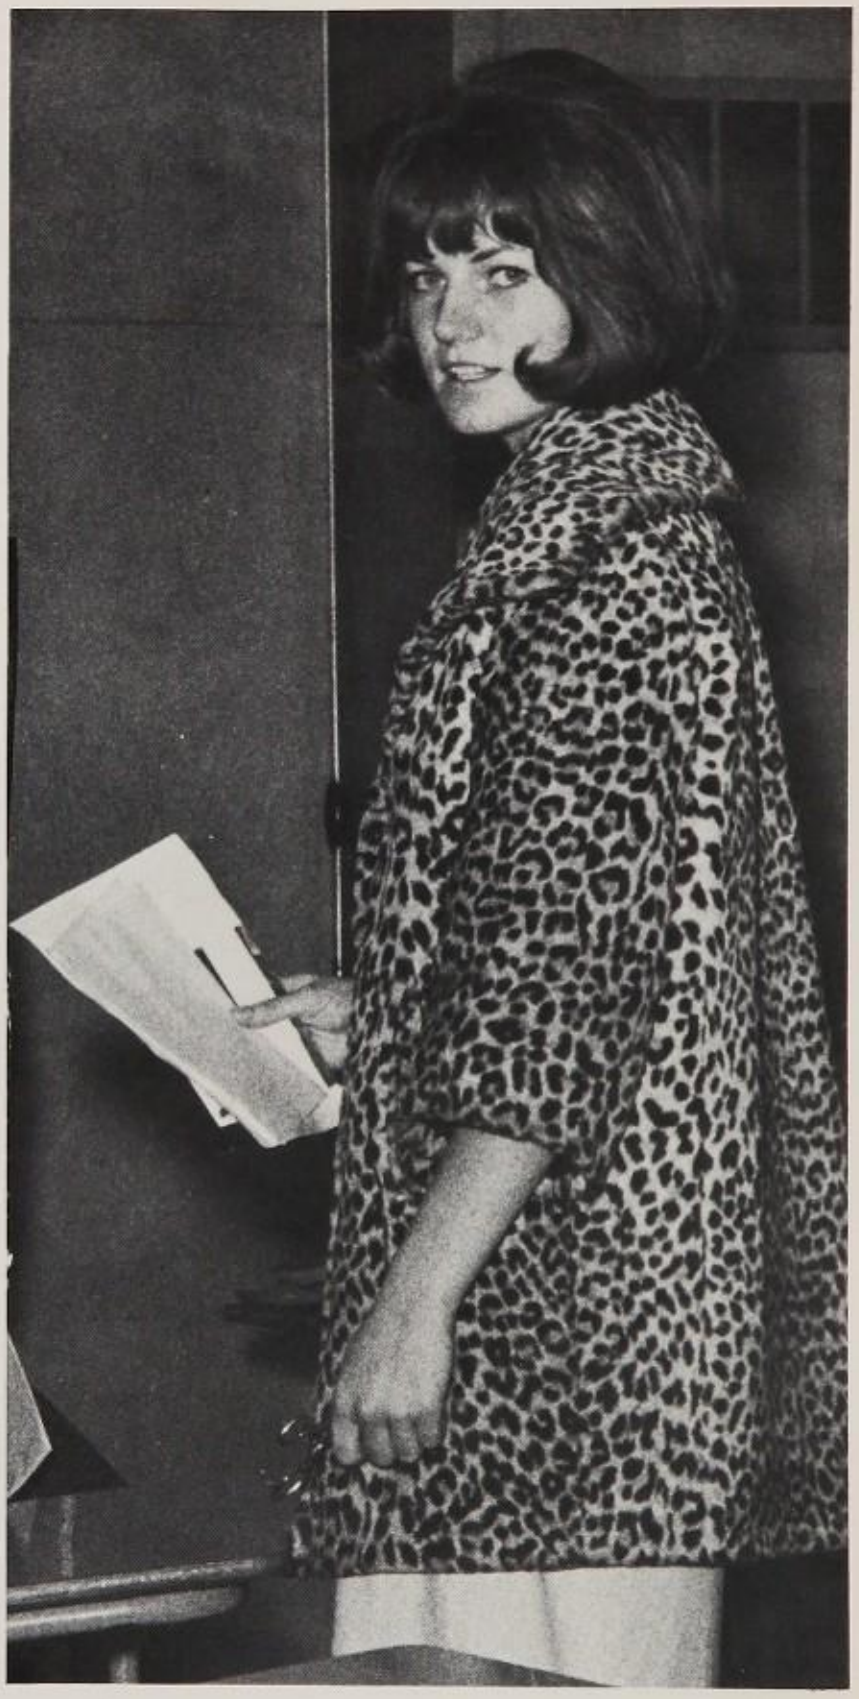
"The ocean as the theme of our OLYMPIAD this year is particularly fitting. Besides the superb recreational opportunities that it offers, this vast and wonderful world lying just West of us holds an enormous wealth of untapped resources that will be increasingly necessary for the survival of our expanding world population. As in so many things, the key to the successful exploration of this magnificent ocean lies in our imaginative, educated efforts."

Mrs. Elsie Ellsworth
Dr. Lucas' Secretary

From the Principal's Office



Last Word from the Editor



Now the 1966 Olympiad is completed, printed and ready for South High's Student Body. This year, by request, we included six extra pages of candids, and for the first time, presented a full color photograph in the Olympiad.

During the past year the Annual Staff has been busily writing copy, sketching layouts, and the photographers have been covering activities—all of us working together to produce a yearbook which would best commemorate the year of 1966. I would like to extend special thanks to Mr. Pelster, our new advisor this year, who devoted many long hours of hard work to help the staff produce this annual. I would also like to thank Mr. Ralph Jesson of Taylor Publishing Company who was very patient and calm amidst our rushing to meet deadlines. Also, I want to thank Mr. Harry Fitch of Robert's Photography for his support and devotion in taking the color transparency for our picture.

Without the help of Mr. Morgan, and Mr. Muse and their secretaries, Mrs. McCusker and Mrs. Patton, who directed annual sales, there could be no annual.

And last of all I would like to thank my assistant editor, Craig Evanco, and the rest of my staff.

We are confident we have produced an annual which Spartans can enjoy again and again, now and in the future while looking back and reliving this year in the pages of the 1966 Olympiad.

"Come in and meet the Staff! Find out about one of the finest youth-serving organizations in Torrance and the largest older youth YMCA camping program in the entire nation. Ask about Hi-Y and Tri-Y clubs or discover camping trips that you might enjoy: back packing, water ski trips, caravans, base camps, rubber raft trips, and leadership camps for guys and gals."
